Frosh Class Breaks All Records

Last Year's Frosh Aboard the Ticonderoga

Some of last year's frosh class snapped with the captain on the bridge of the Ticonderoga.

Busy First Week Spent By The More Than 300 Frosh

Two more records were set this week as a freshman class of some 320 students entered St. Michael's taking the college over the 1100 mark in enrollment for the first time in its history. Tops till now had been last year's 300 frosh and 1000 total.

This year's figures are in contrast to 1944 when a total of only 45 students ate, slept and held all their classes in Old Hall.

Volunteers Help During Frosh Week

Greeting, assisting, showing true Michaelman friendliness, and being a big help in every way was the concern of a group of upperclassmen during this Frosh Week.

This group, numbering more than two dozen, was all volunteers. They returned early to give the administration a helping hand during the entire Frosh Week. With another heavy influx of new Michaelmen, the administration saw fit to call upon upperclassmen to aid in the successful conducting of this week. Most of the group was composed of Student Council members. It is becoming a tradition of the Council to return early for Freshman Week and offer their services. Along with the Council members several other students voluntarily returned to campus a week early and the whole group worked together.

The group, called Student Guides, included:

Student Council members: Bill Deignan, Tom Kenney, George Rodden, Buck McMahon, Paul LaPointe, Bill Heenehan, Walt Coon, Bob Flanagan, Charlie Flanagan, Paul Boucher, Jim Loughrey, Tim Murphy, Jim McKown, Leo Contois, Bill Kenny, Forrest Rouelle.

The non-Council volunteers are: Sal Salerni, Tom Lambert, Jack Cronin, Bob Lilly, Clem Shaw, Paul Mitchell, Bob O'Brien, Gus Contant, Tom Sheehan, Fran Merrigan, Jerry Bushey, Bill Bernache.

The group spent all day Tuesday meeting trains and busses, directing Freshmen to the college and to their halls, and helping the Dean of Men in his reception of parents and Freshmen. The Wednesday and Friday evening programs were handled by the Council members and the other volunteers.

This group went a long way this week in promoting a spirit of hospitality and friendliness to our new Michaelmen.

With first classes not scheduled until Monday, the class of '53, which arrived last Tuesday found itself with a whole week to get used to the collegiate atmosphere. They also found themselves with a full week's schedule of events to help them get used to it.

This year the inevitable registration procedure featured a new angle, a system for consulting faculty advisors which simplified and speeded up the process.

On the lighter side the week included a rally, barbecue, talent night and a boatride scheduled for Sunday. The football game listed for Saturday was cancelled.

250 of the freshmen are being assigned on-campus rooms but for the freshman week the complete class was placed on the campus.

Over the weekend the frosh will have a chance to meet the upperclassmen as they begin arriving for registration on Monday and Tuesday.

The freshmen, who begin class Monday, and the upperclassmen, who start Wednesday, will be greeted by a faculty of 72, also a new school record. Last year the faculty numbered 63.

From Far & Near They Come To Here

Twelve states and three foreign countries are represented by this week's record frosh class with Massachusetts topping the list.

With all the records still not complete the Bay State is well out in front with close to 130 frosh Michaelmen to its credit.

New York and Vermont rank two-three. There are almost 80 New York frosh on campus and only a few less Vermonters.

Freshman Michaelmen hail from all the New England states and from New York, Alabama, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Tennessee.

The largest number of foreign freshmen come from Canada. There is also one from Germany and another from Honduras.

Mintzer Appointed Trustee of School

One new associate trustee and two honorary trustees were added to St. Michael's board of trustees, during the summer months.

George Mintzer, counsel of the American Jewish committee, has been added to the associate trustees, and Thomas B. Wright, Sr., and Paul D. Kelley, both of Burlington, have been named honorary trustees " by virtue of their long and faithful service as associate trustees," Father Lyons said.

Last winter Mintzer, who has been impartial chairman for the ladies' garment industry spoke on " Civil Rights" in the Human Relations course conducted at St. Michael's by Leo Casey. Mintzer who was formerly chief assistant United States Attorney in New York earned the War Department Award of Merit for his work during the war in uncovering subversive action on the part of Communists, Fascists and Nazis. He is a member of the New York State University Commission and has been chairman of the New York State Minimum Wage Board.

Mr. Mintzer is the first New Yorker to be elected an associate trustee since the death of the late Supreme Court Justice Daniel V. McNamee of Hudson.

Both Mr. Wright and Mr. Kelley have long been prominent Burlington businessmen, Mr. Wright being associated with Abernethy Clarkson and Wright, and Mr. Kelley having conducted his own grocery firm. In addition to their work for St. Michael's, they have been active also in diocesan projects.

Jim Batts, Methuen, Mass., and Ray Cormier, Lawrence, Mass., are the only married men with the Knights' varsity eleven. Cormier has two children.

---

Arthur " Pop" Stewart, a native of Williamstown, Mass., now a resident of Essex Junction, Vt., is chief groundskeeper for the St. Michael's College new athletic field.

Borgmann Resigns As B-ball Coach

St. Michael's this past week released Bennie Borgmann, basketball coach, from a contract in order that he might accept a similar post at Muhlenberg College.

George " Doc" Jacobs, director of athletics at St. Michael's, said that Borgmann had conferred with him and asked if St. Michael's would let him fill the vacancy nearer his New Jersey home. Jacobs said he was sorry to see Borgmann go.

" We all wish Bennie the best," Jacobs said. " He's a great guy and a great coach. We'll miss him, but we can understand that he wants to be nearer his family."

Borgmann who scouts for the Cardinals in baseball broke into college basketball at St. Michael's last year with a 14 and 7 record. He lived at the college from October to April during basketball season. His contract had another year to run.

Garrison Goldsberry and Al Anglin '44, were on campus for a weekend Retreat during the month of June.

---

St. Michael's College hockey team will play a 12 game schedule this winter. The Purple Knights are coached by Bill Piscione, Everett, Mass., and assisted by Rev. Garrett B. Larkin, SSE.

Three Michaelmen Die During Summer

St. Michael's lost two former presidents and a student during the first month of the summer vacation.

The Rev. James H. Petty, the Rev. William Jeanmarie and Marcel Giroux, a sophomore, all died during June.

Father Petty died June 29, at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Selma, Alabama. Father Petty was president of St. Michael's from 1940 through 1946. At one time during those war years the enrollment dropped to 45 students. Even then, however, Father Petty initiated steps to begin the expansion of St. Michael's to its present 1100 enrollment.

Not only were the original plans completed during Father Petty's term but the first buildings had already been rolled over the fields from nearby Fort Ethan Allen when he was succeeded by the Very Rev. Father Lyons who has since continued the program.

Father Jeanmarie, president from 1919 to 1931 died June 6, in the Fanny Allen Hospital where he was ordained in 1907. During Father Jeanmarie's years as president, the school built College Hall and bought St. Joseph's, St. Edmund's and Prevel Halls as well as much of the farm land surrounding the campus. Since 1930, Father Jeanmarie has been first assistant to the superior general of the Society of St. Edmund.

Giroux was killed in West Medway, Mass., June 27, when a tractor he was driving overturned. At St. Michael's, Giroux was known as one of the most active members of his class. Besides playing the saxophone in a student orchestra, he also played hockey and was a member of the biology club and outing club.

Requiescat in pace.

BIGGEST SUMMER SCHOOL ATTRACTS 340 STUDENTS

The summer session just ended was the most successful which St. Michael's College has had since it began off season instruction 11 years ago. Three hundred and forty students, a record number, attended graduate and undergraduate courses this year.

About half the number were undergraduates making up courses or trying to ease the load for this year. The other half included the members of 14 different religious orders from this country and Canada. A number of lay teachers and other professional people filled out the quota.

The session was under the direction of Dr. Jeremiah K. Durick, who is chairman of the English department during the regular session. Fine weather, good swimming at Bayside and a chance to see the college's famous Equity Playhouse company in action added to the delights of summer in Vermont. There also were examinations.

A good intramural sports program under Rev. John A. Stankiewicz kept the men busy, while the college for the first time had a dean of women, Sister Mary of St. Yolande, C.S.C. With more than 100 women on campus, the administration decided that they should have their own dean and Sister Mary was an inevitable choice. She had won both her bachelor's and master's degrees at St. Michael's and had had charge of the Cadet Nursing program here during the war.

Especially popular with those in the Science courses was the new Science Hall which gave the students a chance to work in the finest facilities in the state and beyond.

From The President

FATHER LYONS

As president of St. Michael's College, I am happy and proud to greet the largest student body which we have had in our forty-five years of existence here in Vermont.

It is not alone in the size of the student body that we rejoice. Rather we are happy that so many of you have placed in us your confidence, that so many of your parents have seen fit to entrust you to the care of the Society of St. Edmund.

During this first week, I have met many of you and I hope to know you all soon. I am sure that to some of you the idea of talking with the president of a college seems a relatively improbable event.

Yet, the tradition of St. Michael's has always been one of friendship, one of intimacy between the faculty and the students.

ONE FAMILY

We are all Michaelmen, sons of St. Michael's, and we shall try in every respect to keep alive that ideal of the "one family." My spiritual message to you will be delivered at the Mass of the Holy Ghost, but I have one thought that I should like to leave with you today through the columns of " The Michaelman."

You are here for an education. We of the administration have done everything possible to bring that education within your grasp. You alone can decide whether you want to accept what we offer.

NOT BY BOOKS ALONE

Not alone by books are men educated. They are important tools, but you will learn from many other lessons, in particular from the example of the faculty and your fellow students. You, too, in turn, will be contributing to the education of others.

That is why I earnestly urge you -- be Michaelmen. Give that good example which is the earmark of the educated Christian gentleman.

Take part in the extracurricular activities, and develop those talents which the Lord has given you, but always keep in mind the importance of the organized classwork. If you can sing, join the glee club; if you can act, get into the Knights and Knaves; and if you can write, join the MICHAELMAN. We have a big family this year, but we also have planned to have opportunities for all of you.

So we offer you our best wishes and a pledge of our constant prayers for your success in the year and the years to come.

Very Reverend Daniel P. Lyons, S.S.E.
President.

Frank " Fitter" Fitzgibbons, Bethany, Ill., a guard, is the only member of the 40 man squad whose father played with St. Michael's eleven. His dad, Frank Fitzgibbons, Sr., 4558 Oakenwald Ave., Chicago, Ill., played in 1920-21.

HILL WIND

QUESTION:, What was your first impression of St. Michael's?

TOM PARADISE WHITE PLAINS, N.Y.
Small friendly school, very pleasant.

DICK WOBBY BARRE, MASS.
Speaking for my buddies in 212 and 209, " We're still dazed."

BOB FRITZ WALLINGFORD, CONN.
I think it has an environment which is very conducive to study.

LOUIS VANASSE FLORENCE, MASS.
The only picture I had seen was one of the Science Hall. I was disappointed when I saw the rest of the campus. I think I'll like it better.

JOHN GILFRATER SALEM, N.Y.
I think it's an easy place to get acquainted and I know I'm going to like it very much.

TOM FLANIGAN HOPEDALE, MASS.
I'm very glad to be here and it is all I anticipated.

MRS. McGREGOR BURLINGTON, VT.
I think it's wonderful. I like the priests and the brothers very much and I know my son will be very happy here.

RONNIE DUMONT MANCHESTER, N.H.
It looked pretty good when I first saw it but I'll tell you more later. Everybody here seems friendly.

VIANNEY FERLAND MORRISVILLE, VT.
So far I like it but I'll like it better when I start working.

ANDY BEEBLE WATERVLIET, N.Y.
I was really impressed with the science building.

JACK MEISEL MANCHESTER, N.H.
Everybody up here seems very nice and helpful. There's always someone ready and waiting to show you just where everything and everyplace is.

GREG GOGGIN and WALT RODGERS DORCHESTER, MASS.
We arrived a day early. It was dark and we were lost but we've been here awhile now and had a few meals and we really like it. I (Walt) personally think the food's pretty good.

The MIKE

Welcome frosh! This is your first week in college. Perhaps you've found the college a little confusing. If so, don't worry; the college has found you just as confusing.

This paper, the MICHAELMAN, is your college paper. As weeks go by you'll see more news about your fellow students and what they are doing. You yourself will be making news. This column, the MIKE, will be the column which carries the news and the anecdotes on what ordinary Joe Michaelman is doing.

The MICHAELMAN is a student paper. Students write it, students edit it and students handle the business end. This is typical of St. Michael's where students are encouraged to organize and run their own activities. The best way to learn to do a thing is to do it.

This week this column carries pictures of some of the activities Michaelmen staged last year. Next September, at this time it will be your pictures which will be shown to another freshman class.

Varsity Squad Which Meets UVM Next Saturday

Camp Holy Cross, Vt., Aug. 29 - Sept. 12 ... By way of introduction...Camp Holy Cross on Lake Champlain has been the football training camp of the Purple Knights for the past two years. It is a summer camp for Catholic boys... The 40 man squad spent two rugged weeks of conditioning and scrimmaging under the watchful eyes of coaches " Doc" Jacobs (Head coach), Bill Piscione (Asst. coach) and Barry Branon (Frosh coach)... STRANGE THINGS DEPT. John " Happy" Houlihan, a 200 pound center, received a strange package from a local lass that brought many a laugh from the squad... " Doc" has a nine man crew prepping for the annual regatta season... and using tree bark to make their own canoes... Dan " Smash" Smithson is the crew-chief... Regular hours at camp really helped to put 'em in condition. Nine hours sleep every night and a lot of good chow... Al Hannoosh, weighed in August 15 at 252 pounds, but after two weeks of practice at the college before going lakeside, Al tipped the scales (over?) at 256... " Doc" believes in the conditioning philosophy that early to bed and early to rise makes a football team healthy, wealthy, and BIG...

IN THE DARK

Three of the 14 nights were spent in the dark. There was a short circuit in the fuse box and superintendent Bill couldn't find it. He used about six fuses... But "never say die" Bill Piscione remedied the situation with candle light... " Pop" Stewart, chief cook and bottle washer, kept the Purple Knights in clean clothes doing his daily wash... " Pop" also acted as handyman with the bandaids on many occasions... Shamrocks to " Pop" Stewart... He now has the handle of "what-a-man Stewart" ... After two weeks at Camp Holy Cross, the Purple Knights are well-versed in the " trap and pass" offense that is to be employed by " Doc" Jacobs this season... After five weeks of daily double workouts, and still another week to go before that all-important Vermont game, the Jacobsmen are all in top physical condition... Managers Art Fraser, Frank Maiorano, Bill Daley and Jack Terenzini showed plenty of hustle at the training camp keeping the squad supplied... Bill Daley showed a little too much hustle one day and took five laps as a result... Bill offered a player a mouthful of water... Frank Maiorano and " Pop" opened their own business repairing football shoes at the camp... The managers acted as trainers, waiters, and dishwashers for two solid weeks and are deserving of a few dozen shamrocks... Ray DeJesus was at camp for 10 days and filled himself one evening with more frosting then he could swallow...

Seven local scribes and radio announcers spent an enjoyable evening at a gabfest with coaches Jacobs, Piscione and Branon, and to quote from Daily News Sports Editor Gil Wood, " Arnold Lewis is finding it more difficult each day to get up to the WCAX mike and that feed at Camp Holy Cross didn't help matters any." ... At least three blankets were on every sack during the frosty nights... At this point the entire squad, coaches, players, managers, and even the publicity drummer, would like to thank Fr. Fitzsimmons for the enjoyable stay at Camp Holy Cross. Everything was perfect Pere, and we all hope to see more of you and hear from you more often... Thanks loads, and we may be seeing you next August for another two weeks.. " Fr. Fitz" is the director of Camp Holy Cross... And another training sojourn comes to an end. Deo Gratias.

Centennial Field Is Home This Fall

St. Michael's College will play its 3 home football games this fall at the University of Vermont's Centennial Field across the river in Burlington.

Very Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, president of St. Michael's, applauded the "cooperative spirit and public minded action" of the University's Athletic Council in permitting the Knights to use Centennial.

St. Michael's is building a new athletic plant and the bleachers will not be able to handle the crowds expected. St. Michael's was undefeated in the state last year, won five of seven games and allowed its opposition only 15 total points all season.

The University's decision will mean that St. Michael's will meet in Burlington: Lowell Textile on Oct. 8; American International on Oct. 22; and Norwich on Nov. 12.

The St. Michael's - UVM game September 24, will also be at Centennial Field, but will be the University's home game.

Writing to Prof. F. D. Carpenter, head of the UVM Athletic Council, Father Lyons said the action would be appreciated "not only by me, but by the student body as well."

St. Michael's Athletic Director " Doc" Jacobs had scheduled the Purple Knights' home games so as not to conflict with the University's home games in Burlington.

KNIGHTS & CATS TANGLE IN BIG TILT SATURDAY

Next Saturday at Centennial Field the University of Vermont Catamounts and the St. Michael's College Purple Knights will buck heads in the 1949 Vermont Gridiron curtain raiser in Burlington. The Knights will have six weeks of practice under their belts while the Cats will have four.

Head Coach and Director of Athletics George " Doc" Jacobs has led his 40 man squad through grueling two-a-day practice sessions come rain or snow for 33 days now and still seven days to go before the all-important Vermont game.

When these two teams meet it will be with the intention of revenge for one and a win streak for the other. The Catamounts, coached by " Fuzzy" Evans, were upset royally last year 13-2 and will seek the revenge. The Purple Knights, coached by " Doc" Jacobs, will be out to make it two in a row over the Evansmen.

Jacobs has three teams ready for action next Saturday. His first team is undetermined because of the competition being waged for starting berths.

FIGHT AT CENTER

Two veteran lettermen from last years' 5 and 2 eleven are having the hottest battle for the nod from the " Doctor." They are Dick Klaess, starting center last year, and Joe Hermans, starting tackle with '48 edition of the Purple Knights. Klaess and Hermans are battling it out for the center slot. John Houlihan, a sophomore center weighing a mere 200 pounds, has these two vets on their toes. Houlihan played freshman ball last year with the Purple Squires coached by Barry Branon.

There are eleven returning lettermen from the 1948 squad that rolled up 110 points against 15. They are: last year's co-captains, halfback Jack (better known around football circles as " Rabbit") Daly and guard Clem Ferris; fullback Marty Conley; tackle Jim Conboy; guard Frank Fitzgibbons; end Tom Hannigan; centers Hermans and Klaess; end Bob Knight; quarterback Ed Krupinsky; and guard Jim Whitlock.

According to Jacobs most of the team will be made up of sophomores, veterans of the Purple Squires, who comprise more than half of the 40 man squad.

A promising newcomer to the backfield is sophomore Jack Heggarty, a port-sider from Lawrence, Mass. Heggarty never had a crack at a collegiate line, but has shaped up enough to see plenty of action during the eight game schedule.

The 1949 schedule will admit no mistakes by the Knights. It's 8 straight weekends for the Purple and Gold.

Following their home opener at Centennial Field next Saturday

As the Center See's Them

Doc Books Frosh For Four In Fall

Director of Athletics George " Doc" Jacobs has announced that the St. Michael's College Purple Squires will play a four game freshman schedule this season.

The Squires, who beat Norwich 39-0, Clarkson 21-14, and Vermont 28-0, lost to Middlebury 13-20, and tied Williams 13 all, will be coached once more by Barry Branon, St. Michael's alumnus.

The Frosh reported last Tuesday. In their first tilt they meet Norwich on the road Oct. 6.

The Purple Squires' schedule follows: at Norwich, Oct. 6; Clarkson, at Malone, N.Y., Oct. 23; Vermont, Oct. 28; and Middlebury, Nov. 11. Home games will be played at Winooski Park.

St. Michael's new Science Hall begins its first full year of use this week. Completed last winter at a cost of close to $600,000 the Science Hall provides top notch facilities for science and med students. - Architects sketch of the Hall as it will look in years to come.

Old Hall II Tops In Summer Softball

In the Intramural softball league this summer, Old Hall II walked off with high honors winning ten contests and posting the big 0 in the loss column.

Six teams were entered in the league. They were: Old Hall II, Old Hall III east and west, St. Leo's, Brothers, and the Faculty. St. Leo's were runnerups.

Cafe & Dining Hall Plan Slight Change

Although the first freshmen weren't due to arrive 'til Tuesday, the college snack bar opened up for a new season Monday morning.

The snack bar, located behind Austin Hall is open from 8:30 a.m., until 10 p.m., daily, Saturdays until 2:30.

This year the snack bar will not be open Sundays. Last winter it was open until 2:00 Sunday afternoon. According to Mr. Hanlon, the school steward, the cafeteria didn't do enough business to pay its way for Sundays.

Mr. Hanlon also mentioned that the dining hall will close at 12:30 for Sunday dinner instead of 12:45 as on weekdays.

The other dining hall hours are the same as last winter. Breakfast, 7:30 to 8:10; dinner 11:30 to 12:45 (weekdays); supper, 5:15 to 6:00.

Fr. Larkin Heads Intramural Program

Rev. Garrett B. Larkin, SSE, will be director of the intramural sports' program this year at St. Michael's College.

Fr. Larkin, a hockey player himself, will also assist Bill Piscione, hockey coach, when the Purple Knights open their nine game schedule in January. Three hockey games are yet to be scheduled.

The intramural sports program for the 1100 Michaelmen will begin on campus Sept. 28, with touch football and outdoor basketball. Sixteen teams will participate in the four sport program. Other sports are gym basketball and softball.

Fr. Larkin attended Loyola College in Montreal where he was active in athletics. At St. Michael's he coached the Purple and Gold sextet while he was a brother.

Teams entered in the league are: Old Hall 2, 3, and 4; St. James 1 and 2; St. John's 1 and 2; St. Pat's; St. Leo's; St. William's; St. Edmund's; Off-campus, Burlington, Winooski, and Essex Junction; and the Day hops.

SUMMER THEATRE CLICKS WITH STUDENTS & PROS.

For the third successive summer, St. Michael's offered professional theater to the Burlington area in Austin Hall which is titled St. Michael's Playhouse during the straw hat season. Two of the eight plays given by the Equity company were premieres.

" The Night and The Star," which won the $3000 Christophers' prize this year as the best play not only was well received critically; it also won a year's end poll as the "most liked" play. It's a lynch mob drama by John Oberg which was favorably reviewed by the local papers, Variety and America.

Emmet Lavery's " Tarquin," the other premiere, was the most provocative play. According to the poll, this play was the second "most liked" and the third "least liked." A "modern opera" depicting the conflict between Christianity and totalitarianism, it drew its name from the chief character.

Blanche Yurka drew the biggest crowds during the week of " The Importance of Being Earnest" and was reengaged for " The Rivals." Lynn Masters opened in " Candida," while "Shadow and Substance," "Juno and the Paycock," and " Days Without End" completed a season which won more friends for the college.

MICHAELMEN BUSY

Under the executive direction of Prof. Henry Fairbanks, the Playhouse gave several undergraduates valuable experience. Robert Lilly, Bill Heenehan, Paul Mitchell, John Swift carried minor roles with the professionals. Gus Contant and John Swift worked under Rev. Edward Tining in the apprentice productions. Harry Scully, '48, who is now doing graduate work in drama at Catholic University, had prominent roles in several plays as well as assisting with publicity.

The two circulation managers of THE MICHAELMAN, Chris McNally and Frank Becher were treasurer and office manager, respectively. Gerald Yandow, an alumnus, was electrician. Charley Hanley, Art Fraser and Frank Lynch worked with the crew.

School Paper Meets Thursday Night

Students interested in joining the staff of the MICHAELMAN, the school newspaper, will have an opportunity this Thursday night at the first regular meeting.

The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. in the MICHAELMAN offices on the second floor of Aquinas Hall. Last year's staff is also expected to be present at this meeting.

There are openings on the MICHAELMAN staff this year for reporters, photographers and cartoonists as well as for students interested in advertising and business. No previous experience is necessary and the paper is open to students of all classes.

The MICHAELMAN is a student newspaper. Mr. John D. Donoghue, Director of Public Relations, is the paper's moderator. Published by a new printing method known as photo-offset, the MICHAELMAN appears weekly during the regular school year.

There will be no paper next week but those at Thursday's meeting will be able to work on the next edition which will appear Oct. 1.

Frosh Registration Simple Under System This Year

Because of a new twist in registration procedure this year's frosh class is starting its collegiate career with one big advantage over many of its predecessors.

This year the frosh will have read the school catalogue.

In the last few years many of the upperclassmen have had only a rather vague idea of some of the school's academic requirements. Chief reason for this seems to be that most of the regulations are listed in the catalogue which many of the students have never read.

This year the catalogue and the student guide as well, were read and explained to all the incoming freshmen, during frosh week.

During the week the freshman class was divided into groups of approximately 30 students and each group was assigned two advisers. These advisers administered tests, helped select classes, explained the regulations and accompanied their groups on the frosh week exercises.

The students will be able to consult these same advisers at any time during the school year.

This is an expansion of the system which has always been followed at St. Michael's.

Book Store Moves To New Location

Upperclassmen, after their books, are apt to have rather confused looks this week.

The college bookstore, located in College Hall for many years, was moved this summer to the first floor of Old Hall. This was part of the construction program which, during the summer, converted the whole first floor of the Hall into modern offices. The bookstore is now office 122.

The bookstore this year is under new management. Father Galligan, manager last year has been given a chance to use his salesmanship at mission work.

The new manager is Fran Nolan '48, who cashiered in the store last year.

Thirty Vermonters Get Scholarships

Thirty Vermont youths from 10 counties have been awarded State of Vermont scholarships this year by St. Michael's College. The State Legislature at its last session raised from 15 to 30 the number of $120 scholarships available to those choosing St. Michael's.

Because St. Michael's had increased fivefold since the original 15 scholarships were voted, the college sought to have the Legislature increase both the number and value of each scholarship.

Those to benefit during the first semester from the state scholarships, their hometowns and counties follow:

Bennington County: Leo J. Plourde, Bennington.

Chittenden County: Gerald J. Albert, Denton E. McCarthy, Harold McGrath, Jr., Erald E. Medlar, Frank R. Riley, all of Burlington. Richard R. Beauchemin, Bernard R. Blais, Raymond Brault, Earl R. Brunnelle, Leo L. Contois, Edward E. Horton, John J. Korzun, Jr., all of Winooski; Robert H. Granger and Roger C. Buley of Richmond. Paul E. McKenzie of Hinesburg.

Franklin County: James P. Bowler and John P. Clark of St. Albans.

Grand Isle: Philip Dulude, Alburg.

Lamoille: Vianney Ferland, Morrisville and John P. Rooney, Hyde Park.

Orleans: Roger Duranleau, Westfield and Paul Ste. Marie, North Troy.

Rutland: Harold W. Timbers and John R. LaBrake, Rutland.

Windham: J. Nelson Brouillette and George E. Parmenter, Brattleboro.

Windsor: Edward J. Krupinsky, Springfield.

Washington: Harry L. Brusa, Northfield and Edward O'Hagan, Barre.

B-ball Slate Out, Ten Games At Home

St. Michael's College will play a 21 game basketball schedule in 1949-50, it was announced today by Director of Athletics George " Doc" Jacobs. Nine home games will be played in Burlington's Memorial Auditorium and one home game in Rutland, Vt.

Four newcomers to the 21 game slate are the New York AC, Springfield College, the Montreal YMHA, and Becker College of Worcester.
